

U.S. Senator John Ashcroft

Congressional Record, 105th Congress, 19 June 1997

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I would like to point out a remarkable program that exists in America today--a program that infuses our young people with a sense of purpose, values, principles, and the capacity to get things done.

This program, called the Leadership Training Institute for Youth, is doing its good work at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, MO, this week.

Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to this organization and its dedicated staffers and participants. It is Missouri's distinct honor to host such an excellent opportunity for our young people.

The Leadership Training Institute for Youth is a model initiative that, with the help of Scripture and sound guidance, teaches young people the tenets of good leadership and good citizenship.

Of course, the core training for tomorrow's leaders begins at home, and this organization and its committed staffers build on the lessons that parents teach.

The Leadership Training Institute for Youth provides young people across the country with opportunity, inspiration, and advantage in our culture. It calls future leaders to their highest and best in the name of a higher power. It offers direction in what is too often a rudderless world.

The institute demonstrates through lessons and example the value of priorities such as love for God, family, and country. It motivates youth to esteem virtues of honor, morality, compassion, faithfulness, integrity, discipline, and respect for the sanctity of life.

Therefore, I rise today to express my sincere appreciation to the Leadership Training Institute for Youth. Without such entities, our children might be left to the mercies of today's malls, movies, and televisions.

Our national heritage and our country's future are too important to be left to today's suspect environments that typically attract our young people.

The Leadership Training Institute for Youth is a commitment to our young people--a commitment to the future leaders of this great Nation. We need more programs like it.
